TO COMPEL SUDGE STUDIES TO FILE A FINDING OF FACTS.

Interesting Hearing in Common Pleas Court-Numerous Divorces Granted by Judge Wheeler-Newsy Items From the Other Local Courts.

In the common pleas court yesterday afternoon there was some talk of comnencing mandamus proceedings against Judge John P. Studley. The talk came up in the case of Albert B. Manley against the town of Ansonia. The suit is an old one and was tried February 17, At that time Manley obtained judgment for $500 damages. He had consequence of injuries received by falling on a sidewalk. After the case had been decided the defendant wave notice of an appeal to the supreme court. Subsequently some of the pleadings were lost, and it was agreed that a duplicate should be subsitutued. The counsel for the town of Ansonia, Judge Munger and Attorney Williams, took the papers for the purpose of making a duplicate and retained them for over a year.

Yesterday Attorney Wills S. Pardee, counsel for Manley, appeared in court and asked for an execution, claiming that owing to the delay the defendants had forfeited all right to an appeal. The request was granted by Judge Studley, but stayed the issuance of of the execution for two weeks, in order to allow Attorney Williams to comment mandamus proceedings, if he so de-sired. Attorney Williams intimated that she would begin such proceedings to compel Judge Studiey to furnish a finding of facts in the case. The defense claim that they wanted such find-ing in order to appeal to the supreme
